Start Screen

Shopping List App
Register or Log In to manage your shopping lists

16:05

Register

Log In

Header should contain name of the app as well as relevant information to guide user on next step.

Background Inage. This feature should relate to the App's contextual role.

Register button should open Registration screen.

Login Button should open Log In Screen.

Log In Screen

E-mail /Username

Password

LOG IN

Don't have an account?

REGISTER

For this field, A valid email address or Username is required.

This button should open the welcome page and should not open the next page if a wrong username/password combination is entered.

For this field, a password is required. The password must be not less than six (6) characters long. It must include a number and at least one capital letter.

This button should open the Registration Screen.

Registration Screen

This field requires a password. The password must be not less than six (6) characters long. It must include a number and at least one capital letter. This password will be used to log into the App.

Thsi field requires a valid email address. User should use a unique email address for every account of the App.

This field requires a unique Username for every user. Unavailable or Taken usernames should return "Username already taken!"

E-mail

Username

Password

Repeat Password

REGISTER

Already have an account?

LOG IN

If all the inputs are valid, this button should open the home screen for the App.

User should re-enter password exactly as in the previous field. Any differences should return "Passwords don't match. Try Again". Text in this field is required.

This combo box should allow the user to edit the title of their shopping list. The button should open a pull-down menu with the following components.
Edit Items (This involves adding and deleting items on the shopping list)
Share (Should allow user to connect to social media and email platforms so as to share the selected list)
Delete List
Rename List

This button should allow the user to open and manage a new shopping list.

This button should allow the user to navigate back to the homescreen where theycan log out.

16:05

New List

Shopping List 1

Shopping List 2

Shopping List 3

Shopping List 4

Shopping List 5

Shopping List 6

Shopping List 7

Shopping List 8

Shopping List 9

Shopping List 10

‹ Back

Shopping List 1

Item One
Item Two
Item Three
Item Four
Item Five

< Back
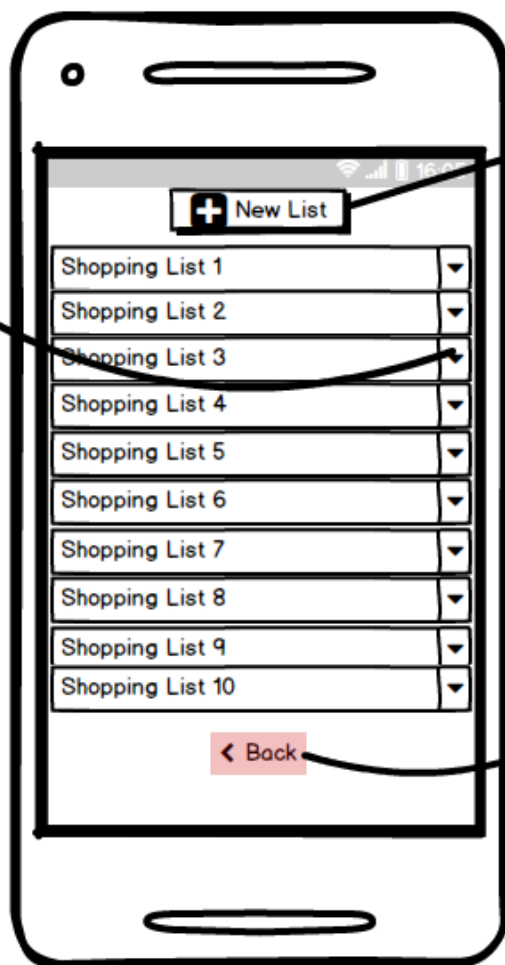

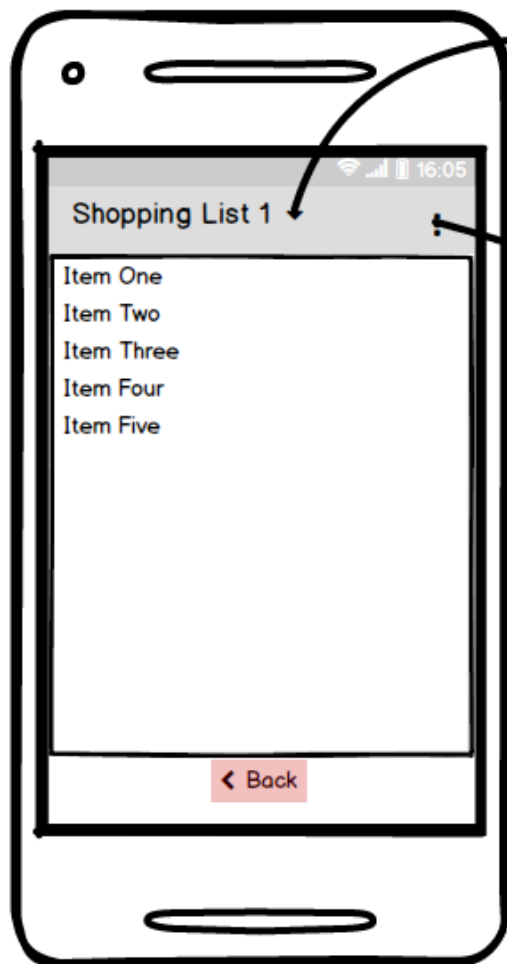

This button should open a pull down menu that should allow the user to rename or delete the shopping list.

This button should allow the user to add and delete items in the shopping list. The share option is also included as a functionality of this button.